

CANAL LOCK WALK

Each Saturday afternoon

3:00 PM

Meet a National Park Service Park Ranger on the James River Visitor Center back porch for the short walk to the Battery Creek lock to hear about the history of the canal and how the lock worked.

Funding for interpretive programs provided in part through the generous donation of Eastern National.

