

Friday, June 26, 2009

Linville Falls Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 316

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"Historic Mines of the Mountains"

These Mountains are a treasure trove of mineral wealth, and have been mined for thousands of years. Learn what minerals have been mined here and their uses.

Crabtree Meadows Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 340

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"Snakes of the Blue Ridge Parkway"

Since the Garden of Eden, we have been taught to loath and fear snakes. Are they the villains they have been made out to be?

Saturday, June 27, 2009

Linville Falls River Bend Overlook - Milepost 316

10:30 am Length 30 minutes

Junior Rangers : "Trout Chow"

Come explore the stream and learn about the food that trout eat and how to find them in a stream.

Linville Falls Visitor Center - Milepost 316

1:00pm

"Snakes"

Come and learn about snakes of the Parkway

Linville Falls Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 316

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"Mountain Murder Mysteries: 'Til Death Do Us Part"

This is the story of Frankie Silver, one of the first women executed by the state of North Carolina. Come learn about her grisly deeds and why her husband has three graves

Crabtree Meadows Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 340

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"Vultures: the Misunderstood Raptor"

What would the world be like without the vulture? Come learn about this misunderstood raptor and the beauty and value it has in nature.

Sunday, June 28, 2009

Linville Falls Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 316

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"Everyday life in the Carolina Backcountry"

As you camp out under the stars, have you wondered what experiences you are sharing with settlers moving west two hundred years ago? Come find out.

Crabtree Meadows Campground Amphitheater - Milepost 340

7:00pm Length 45 minutes

"The Wild Wood"

As we venture into the Wilderness, let us understand our impact on the unspoiled environment we see, and how that view is shaped.

